HSBC

Furniture Donation by HSBC

HSBC, always true to the spirit of social contribution that defines it, recently donated – following the renovation of its head offices– its old office furniture to Non-Governmental Organisations.

The Non-Governmental Organisations to which a total of 402 furniture items (cupboards, shelves, tables, desks and chairs) were donated are the following: Open Arms (Anichti Agalia), The Smile of the Child (To Hamogelo tou Paidiou), The Friends of the Child (Filoi tou Paidiou), MDA Hellas, SOS Children's Villages, Therapeutic Riding Association and Hatzikyriakio Child Care Institution.

As Ms. Tonia Petrovits, Public Affairs & Communications Manager, HSBC Greece, stated: “Seeking to make a lasting contribution, HSBC continues, through new initiatives and the social responsibility activities it undertakes, to boost its employees’ sense of social solidarity and to demonstrate the profound philosophy of the Group and of the values governing it”.
